School Board Report – Jill Osborne

---

- next meeting is on May 24, so not a lot of new information
- May 24, will be approving Education Plan and budget for upcoming year
  - our reserves have been limited
    - by end of August, our reserves cannot be more than 3.15% - 4% of budget (about $4 million)
      - will be taken back if not used
  - have approved a budget with a deficit of approx. $2.5 mil and have asked for a reserve of $2 million

Administration Report – Cheryl Otto

---

Drama

- We Will Rock You was a great success!

General

- Online Registration needs to be done if it's not already
- Course Selections are in so scheduling is starting
- School Fees for next year will have some increases to ensure cost recovery. This year's fees are located on our website; next year's will be posted in Fall. Increase to the following classes: Early Learning and Childcare—from $0 to $15; Intro to Trades—from $50 to $80; Phys Ed for 5 credits $25; Sports Performance 15/25 from $52.50 to $60

Extra-Curricular

- Badminton provincials in singles, placed fourth losing to the individual who placed 1st.
- Rugby lots of injuries; soccer injuries and covid. Seasons are almost done.

Staff Awards

- Taylor Pocock, Trustee Aileen Wagner, Linnaea and myself will be attending ASBA's Zone 2, 3 Dinner Celebration on May 27; unfortunately, this is the same evening as the Division's Merits & Milestones Awards Evening. During this event, several of our staff members are being recognized for their year's service: Tayler Gamble 5; Cindy O'Shea 5; Katie Sorenson 5; Cam Robertson 20; Joseph Milne 25; Barbara Petryshen-Kozak 25; Brenda Rolls 25; Mark Rose 25; Marie Porter 30; Howard Kowalchuk 35. As well, all of the Division's Edwin Parr nominees, including Taylor, will be recognized.
