Greetings, Students and Parents.

This month sees an array of diverse activities going on in our school.

This past week, our SGCHS Student Union hosted a Mario Kart Tournament fundraising event for any interested students during their lunch break. The tournament raised around $150 for the Kinette's Holiday Hampers. The Student Union will be hosting another fundraising event starting Tuesday, December 5 called "Stop the Music" where during breaks there will be one song playing over and over on the intercoms until we reach our fundraising goal of $1500. To brighten someone else's holiday season this year we are hosting a Holiday Season Food Drive. We're accepting donations from the 1st of December to the 15th of December and donations can be placed on the table outside of student services. The Food Bank is accepting foods like canned fruit and vegetables, soups, canned meats and meals and other non-perishable food.

You are invited to come and enjoy the fantastic performances by the SGCHS Music Students at the Winter Concert on Monday, December 11. Horizon Stage doors open at 6:30 p.m., the concert starts at 7:00 p.m. and admission is free.

Spruce Grove Composite High School Theatre Arts is proud to present Finding Nemo Jr. This production will be held on Thursday, December 7 and Friday, December 8, 2023 at 7:00 p.m. and runs for approximately 70 minutes. Tickets for both nights are now all sold out. More information can also be found on our website, sgchs.psd.ca

Don't miss out on ordering your 2024 Yearbook! Parents can log into their PowerSchool account at this link <https://powerschool.psd.ca/public/> and purchase it online for $52.50 each. The delivery of these books will be in September/October 2024, watch the school website and school monitors for when you can come and pick up your pre-paid order. If you have a question, or need assistance, please call Heather at 780-962-0800 or email heather.hughes@psd.ca. You can also find this information on our website.

With Winter Break just around the corner, now is a great time to plan ahead. The Final Exam Schedule is attached to this newsletter so that students and parents can see exactly when they begin. Please remember, no exams can be written ahead of time and Diploma Exam dates are set by Alberta Education. If a student misses a Diploma Exam, it will need to be written at the next seating in April for the course to be considered complete.

We here at SGCHS wish you all a restful Winter Break spent with those close to you.

Healthy Holiday's: Holiday Survival

The holidays are supposed to feel like the most wonderful time of the year. Christmas holidays provide an incredible opportunity to connect with family and friends, reflect on the year, and build new memories in this special season. The holiday season can also feel busy, rushed, and can bring up a variety of emotions both for children and parents.

The key to thriving, not just surviving, during the holiday season is remembering the reason for the season. The reason of this magical season is to share and give love. Teaching these values to our children helps us stay focused on what is most important. It's easy for our children to focus on what they are going to get, instead of what they can give this time of year. Instead of focusing on getting, we can refocus our families on giving. Giving helps our children set the right expectations for the holiday season. Let's explore some giving ideas together :

- ◆ Family Acts of Kindness – Challenge each family member to do one act of kindness for each other.
- ◆ Family Sentimental Gift Exchange – In addition to your gift giving traditions, have family members draw names and make something sentimental. The only rule is the item must be created and not purchased.
- ◆ Family Baking Challenge – Have each family member write down their favorite Christmas recipe. Plan a day of making the recipes together
- ◆ Community Volunteering – Volunteer as a family to give back and support others this Christmas season.

Giving keeps our hearts focus on love, as the reason for the season. In addition to focusing our hearts and minds on love, here a few practical tips for thriving in the holiday season:

- ◆ Schedule Rest – Holiday seasons can feel full. Schedule time for yourself and your children to unwind and decompress on a daily basis.
- ◆ Prioritize Quality Time – Focus on quality time instead of quantity time. If your family has more time off it's easy to get busy with sporting events, shopping, playdates, and technology. Be intentional about planning family time together every day- even if it's only for a meal, movie, or game.
- ◆ Manage Expectations – Be aware of the expectations of each family member. Communicate a group plan beforehand so everyone is on the same page. Be mindful of not enforcing parental expectations on what you hope your children will enjoy.
- ◆ Manage Technology – Provide clear expectations for screen time over the holiday break. Consider screen time activities such as movies or multiplayer games that build connections and involve the whole family too.
- ◆ Get Outside – Plan activities to get some fresh air and exercise.
- ◆ Emotional Attunement – The holiday season can bring up various emotions for all of us. Be aware of and seek to validate your emotions and the emotions of family members. Instead of pressing through the schedule, seek to understand and meet the needs of family members.
- ◆ Make Memories – Work with your children to develop meaningful holiday traditions that honor your unique values and spiritual beliefs
